In today's global economy, business travel is an essential tool for internationally active organizations. However, at least one-third of all business travelers experience an illness or injury while on international business and domestic health insurance plans often only cover emergency care abroad and not emergency evacuation cost. XN Business Travel Insurance, a group supplemental health insurance program provides online knowledge tools that help members identify, access and pay for quality healthcare services all around the world. Executives can travel safely and securely with the peace of mind that XN provides.
